

Michael Andrews Appointed as Business Development Director at Trans Global Projects

London, UK, 29 April 2025: Trans Global Projects (TGP) is pleased to announce the appointment of Michael Andrews as Business Development Director, effective 1 May 2025. This international role will be based at our new headquarters in Sevenoaks, UK.

Michael Andrews brings over 37 years of extensive experience in project logistics and business development. His career spans several decades and continents, most latterly with Kuehne + Nagel in Singapore as Business Development Manager Project Logistics Asia Pacific. Immediately prior this, he held a business development role with Qube International in Singapore. From 2005 to 2021, Michael was with DB Schenker, where initially served as Head of Projects in the UK, then VP Projects Asia Pacific and later in a global business development role managing significant projects throughout Asia and globally. Earlier in his career, Michael co-founded TGP USA in Houston and founded TGP Italia, managing numerous projects across Europe, Asia, and the USA.

Michael Andrews, Business Development Director, TGP, stated, "I am excited to rejoin the TGP family and look forward to contributing to our continued growth and innovation. My career has been driven by a passion for taking on tough challenges and achieving excellence, and TGP's pioneering spirit aligns perfectly with my aspirations."

Colin Charnock, Group CEO of TGP, added, "We are delighted to welcome Michael back to TGP. His extensive experience and deep understanding of the industry will be invaluable as we continue to expand our global footprint and deliver exceptional service to our clients. This strategic move aligns with our growth path, as TGP is committed to exploring new opportunities in the logistics sector across a variety of industry verticals."
