

Trans Global Projects Strengthens Australian Team

Perth, Australia, 03 November 2025: TGP is pleased to announce two strategic appointments that reinforce its commitment to sustainable development and national coverage across Australia.

Emma Cook has joined as State Manager – Queensland & New South Wales, bringing over two decades of experience in project logistics. Her leadership spans operational planning, strategic partnerships, and stakeholder engagement. Emma's proven ability to drive commercial growth and lead high-performing teams supports TGP's continued expansion in Eastern Australia. Emma is based out of Brisbane, Australia.

"Joining TGP Australia at this pivotal moment allows me to apply my experience in leading high-performing teams and driving commercial growth. I look forward to strengthening our presence in Queensland and New South Wales and supporting our clients with tailored logistics solutions that meet evolving project demands," says Emma Cook, State Manager – Queensland & New South Wales, TGP.

Jamie Bradford has been appointed to the role of Project Logistics – Strategy & Planning, based in Perth, Western Australia. Jamie brings more than 20 years of experience in logistics management across large-scale infrastructure and energy projects. His expertise in strategic planning and transport logistics enhances TGP's capabilities in Western Australia and beyond.

"TGP's national expansion presents an exciting opportunity to contribute strategic insight and operational expertise. I'm committed to supporting our clients across Western Australia and beyond with robust logistics planning that aligns with their project goals," adds Jamie Bradford, Project Logistics – Strategy & Planning, TGP.

Together, Emma and Jamie represent a significant strengthening of TGP's national footprint, ensuring coverage from coast to coast and reinforcing the company's ability to deliver innovative logistics solutions across diverse industry sectors.

"The appointments of Emma and Jamie reflect our commitment to building a resilient and capable team across Australia. Their leadership and expertise are instrumental in driving our regional growth," concludes Simon Duke, CEO Middle East & Asia-Pacific, TGP.

These developments mark another step forward in TGP's strategic growth and commitment to excellence across the wider Australian market.
